

This topographic map of the Sierra de la Curiscada area in Galicia, Spain, features a red route marked with various icons and elevation data. The route begins at the top center with a clock icon, followed by a lightning bolt icon labeled 'R1' with a value of 0.00. It then passes through a cluster of six red circular icons. Further along, it encounters lightning bolt icons labeled 'R2' (1.80), 'R3' (2.78), 'R4' (3.44), 'R5' (4.68), 'R6' (5.53), 'R7' (6.69), 'R8' (7.64), 'R9' (8.52), and 'R10' (9.76). Two red rectangular boxes labeled 'MONTAJE ESPECIAL' are placed along the route. The map includes numerous place names such as El Pedregal, Parroquia del Pedregal, Las Vaucuras, La Llerona, El Cruceiro, and La Curiscada. It also shows geographical features like the Rio Vauqureguixu and the Sierra de la Curiscada. Elevation contours and various other icons (e.g., a stop sign, a red circle with a cross) are also visible.